Barge Used in 1829. The Oxford University Boat club has regained possession of the rowing barge in which the Oxford crew of 1829 rowed and won the first intervarsity race against Cambridge University on the Thames river near London on June 10, 1829. The boat, which is 45 feet long and 4 feet 4 inches wide at the middle, is constructed of line sireak or lan boards, a keel and nine streak or lap boards, a keel and a gunwale. A long plank runs the length of the centre of the boat, and the thwarts are supported by single upright iron stays. The heavier material is spruce, the smaller ribs ash, and the main timbers oak. The thow in pins are narrow and the oarsmen sat the extreme converte and of the he extreme opposite end of the

The boat was used for a number of succeeding races, and some ten years later was stored in an old boathouse at Oxford as unfit for further use. In at Oxford as unfit for further use. In 1841 Sir Robert Menzies, then a student and carsmen at Oxford, purchased the boat and had it shipped to Loch Rannock. There the historic grandfather of all racing shells remained until his death, when it was sold with other relics of Castle Menzies. Thus after seventy years the primitive racing craft has returned to the scene of its earlier triumphs and history making. and history making.

Zimmerman Worth $7,000.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Henry Zimmerman today signed a three year contract at an annual salary of $7,000 to play third base for the Chicago National league club. The new contract is for the seasons of 1915-16-17, his present contract with the Cubs holding over the coming season. The terms were not announced, but were given out by a friend of Zimmerman.

Ban Johnson Says Federals Will Give Up the Ghost Shortly -Several Towns Unprepared-Joe Tinker Has Busy

Chicago, Jan 13.—Developments today in the newest baseball war left both sides—the aggressive outlaws of the Federal league and "organized ball"—confident of success, Predictions that the new league would give up the ghost in a short time were made by President Johnson of the American league and President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals.

Lack of preparation in a number of towns, although the opening of the season is less than three months away, was given as a leading reason by those who expect the Federals' end soon.

Meantime at the headquarters of the Federal leogue there was a busy scene all day. According to Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals, there are forty ball players in town and time. Whether either or both of them had signed contracts with the Federals was not announced. Howard Camnitz, the former Pittsburgh pitcher traded to the Philadelphia Nationals, had a private discussion with Doc Gessler, the Pittsburgh manager.

Despite reports that Killifer of the Philadelphia Nationals and Kirkpatrick of Brooklyn had not signed with the Federals, President Gilmore this afternoon exhibited contracts signed by noon exhibited contracts signed by these men.

A total of thirty-three major league players have signed with the league, he said, eight of them having joined the new organization since Saturday. Infielder McCarthy of Pittsburgh was a caller at the office early this evening, and conferred with Tinker. Felix Chouinard, formerly of the Chicago Americans, and later with Des Moines, also consulted with the Federal eaguers and intimated that he would gn with them. William Brennan, National league william Brennan, National league uniplies, this afternoon signed a three year contract with the Federals. Just before he signed he received a telegram notifying him that a new contract with the National league had arrived at his home in St. Paul, Seven more umpires of high class are on their way here to talk with Federal leaders, Gilmore said,

Weeghman repeated today that he Weeghman repeated today that he would stand by the new league, declaring that since the stormy meeting of Saturday he was sure it would be a success. In this connection President Murphy claimed to have information that Weegham's protest at the meeting against "carrying three clubs" resulted in a verbal attack on him that "created wounds that cannot be heal-ed."

TRADERS CAUTIOUS ef Business Not Large for Various Reasons.

New York, Jan. 19 .- The advance in the stock market was resumed today.

A majority of the speculative shares overcame the effect of the reaction late last week and established new high prices for the upward movement. Gains in many instances ran from one to two in many instances ran from one to two. points, although profit taking in the final hour cut into the advance.

Traders moved cautiously and the volume of business was not large. It was felt that professional buying had been overdone recently, and that the slight setback which the market received was due to that cause. Operators, on the long side, in consequence, moved slowly today, and this tendency was emphasized by the fact tendency was emphasized by the fact outside buying of investment stocks, which supported the market last week, played only a small part in the day's transactions. Added restraint was im-posed by the disinclination of traders to take on new lines on the day be-fore delivery of President Wilson's message to congress on trust questions. which is expected to be of large influ ence upon sentiment in the financial Reading was the conspicuous exception to the day's movement. It was consistently under pressure and its backwardness was a drag on the general market. The coppers were strong being influenced by increasing activity in the metal markets here and abroad. In the metal markets here and abroad. Steel shares also were in good demand. London buying of steel and the coppers assisted the upturn in these shares. In other quarters of the market, however, London sold stocks.

Although demand for the high grade investment stocks fell off, the bond market preserved a strong tone. Traders referred to the continued absorption of bonds at rising prices as one of the best indications of improvement in the general situation. nacular of baseball, the classified want columns of a baseball paper contain some astonishing statements. Recently a player advertising for a position announced that he had spent the last three years with California outlaws. Another, yearning to break into the big leagues, proclaims that salary is no object, which ought to help his case considerably. A left handed Indian and white promoters for a negro leogue are requested to open correspondence. A batter who bats both ways and an educated press agent also can find positions.

According to the present plan the Oxford quartet will consist of four runners who, when considered as a team, are not equalled onsidered as a team, are not equalled in the collegiate world today. Arnold N. S. Jackson, winner of the 1,500 metre race at the Olympic Games of 1912, will captain the team. His first lieutenant will be Norman S. Tabor, Rhodes scholar from Brown University, winner of the 1913 A. A. U. versity, winner of the 1913 A. A. U. mile championship and a number of American intercollegiate titles. G. M. Sproule, captain of the Oxford cross country team and Rhodes scholar from Australia, will be third man, while Basil Rudd of South Africa, also a holder of a Rhodes scholarship, will complete the team.

It thus happens that by a peculiar co-incident Oxford has a quartet co-incident Oxford has a quartet of mile runners drawn from the four corners of the world, every one of which can run a mile in four minutes twenty seconds or better. All have figured prominently in the fall sports of the English university and occaus of their varied experience in nations and international competition, will form a most formidable team, both from the point of time and steadiness Jackson and Tabor have repeatedlerun the mile between 4.15 and 4.3 and are excellent judges of pace and sport. Rudd was originally a one-half miler, with a record of 1.56, but has shown the speed and endurance necessary for a mile in the longer tri-als. Sproule is a long distance winner on a fast, dry track, this team, according to English experts, should run the four miles with out heart-breaking effort inside seventeen minutes thirty effort inside seventeen minutes thirty seconds. Judging from the past rec-ords of the men they should be able
